

The Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry (FICCI) is organizing FICCI HEAL 2010 , a two-day Healthcare Conference in partnership with the International Society for Quality in Health Care (ISQua) and the Asian Society for Quality in Health Care (ASQua), on September 6-7, 2010 at FICCI, Federation House in New Delhi. The theme of this event is “ Healthcare For All: Global Standards with Local Touch”.

The ISQua is a non-profit, independent organization with members in over 70 countries. It works to provide services to guide health professionals, providers, researchers, agencies, policy makers and consumers to achieving excellence in healthcare delivery to all.

The ASQua was established in 2008 and it now has 11 member countries. It focuses on networking with one another, and shortening the learning curve towards achieving quality in healthcare.

Its endeavour through this Conference is to bring together policy makers and leaders from healthcare and associated industries from India and abroad to assess the Indian and global scenario, and to come out with the emerging opportunities, challenges and solutions.

Mr. Shri Ghulam Nabi Azad, Honorary Union Minister for the Health and Family Welfare is being invited to deliver the Inaugural Address while Mr Philip Hassen, ISQua President, is to deliver the Keynote Address.
